

&

AIA Continuing Education System

Registered Provider Content Summary

Concrete Restoration and Repair

PRESENTATION DESCRIPTION

This course provides an overview of the basic components of concrete, the different installations of concrete repair products and the causes and effects of concrete deterioration. Participants will also learn proper installation practices.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Learning Objective 1: Understand the basic components of concrete

Learning Objective 2: Understand the causes and effects of concrete deterioration

Learning Objective 3: Understand the different installations of concrete repair products

Learning Objective 4: Learn proper installation practices including surface preparation, placement and curing

PARTICIPANTS

Architects, specifiers, owners, contractors, and other construction professionals. Ideal seminar size is six to 20.

PRESENTATION METHOD

The presenter uses a PowerPoint presentation loaded with photographs.

PROVIDER

Masonry Advisory Council

PRESENTER

BASF

AIA CREDITS: 1 LU

LENGTH: 1 Hour

HSW: Yes

A/V Needed: Electrical power and presentation screen. The CES provides the laptop and projector.

COST: There is no cost to the firm for the presentation or the lunches provided.

PRESENTER QUALIFICATIONS

BASF presenters are experienced in construction practices. Their qualifications include formal manufacturer's training and extensive applied fieldwork.

QUESTIONS?

Call: 847-297-6704

Website: masonryadvisorycouncil.org/seminars

Email: Isaul@masonryadvisorycouncil.org

